Meet Mr. Snoop, Mr. Scoop

NO SCHOOL ELECTION HELD IN MANHATTAN.

Manhattan is not holding an election of school trustees today, the statement having been given out by members of the present board that inasmuch as an election would cause an additional expense to the school district of something like $75 and that the board apparently is going to satisfaction to the taxpayers of Manhattan, they probably would be re-appointed by Superintendent of Schools Bleasdale, and all expense of an election would thus be eliminated.—Post.

AMUSEMENTS

BETWEEN SAVAGE AND TIGER.

It is safe to predict that George Kleine's latest photodrama "Between Savage and Tiger," the wonderful China story of romance and adventure in the jungle of India, will prove a greater money winner than anything this astute manager has yet produced. There have been jungle pictures produced before and India, but this is positively the first instance where the most exciting adventures with wild animals that can possibly be conceived have been blended with a romantic tale of human interest and is bound to be a tremendous success. Mr. Kleine's productions of "Quo Vadis," "The Last Days of Pompeii," and "Antony and Cleopatra," have appealed to lovers of classics and to particular classes of society, but "Between Savage and Tiger" has a big interest for all, young and old, educated and uneducated—everybody can comprehend it and everybody can enjoy it.

HARMONY AND FUN TO SPARE.

Don't forget to bring your grouchy and melancholy neighbors along with you to the glee club concert next Saturday night. If "Romeo and Juliet" do not cure them of their malady your money will be refunded at the door. It is indeed expressing it mildly when one says they are a "scream" from start to finish. When "Monk" Ferris, the club's basso, relates in song how she "smashed" Romeo you will have to hold your sides or else you are not human. And "Ollie" Johnson, the lyric tenor of the club, is not "slow" as Romeo either. He is indeed a real artist at the love-making game.

Remember that there is a bit of comedy along with the harmony at the glee club concert at the Nevada Theater on next Saturday night.

BUTLER THEATER.

At the Butler this evening the usual high class program will be shown. The pictures are: "A Nest Unfeathered," a Biograph drama; a Kalem split reel showing "At Last They Eat," comedy and "Unveiling the Pilgrim Fathers' Monument," educational, and a two-reel Essanay featuring Francis X. Bushman, "Through the Storm." A wonderfully realistic drama of railroad and telegraph life, photographed in a raging storm. A lineman, prompted by his duty to the company which employs him, struggles to save a fast mail train from utter destruction. He succeeds and is rewarded. Tomorrow—Pathe Weekly, Friday—"Thor, Lord of the Jungles," a three-reel Selig. Saturday—"From Dusk to Dawn," a vaudeville feature.

In addition to the above program, Mr. Satterly, who is walking from Bakersfield to New York, will appear in a contortionist act, a monologue and a short lecture. Mr. Satterly is walking from Goldfield today and will arrive in Tonopah about 5 p. m.

Regular price of admission, 10c.

PASTIME THEATER.

A shower of variety is the title of tonight's program at the Pastime Theater.

Beginning with a farce comedy entitled "The Unhappy Pair," a western drama follows, "The Brothers" being the title. "Slim and the Boys at Breezy Beach" concerns some interesting instructions for the summer months. "Some Magic" is a mysterious bit of laughs, and such.

Medicine for the Healthy is sometimes as necessary as physic for the sick. Even the strong athlete, who occasionally overtaxes his strength, knows the advantage of carrying with him a bottle of our matchless Rye Whiskey as a brace "in cases of emergency."

It is the purest distilled, and not a grain of adulteration in a barrel of it. We confidently recommend it both to the sick and the convalescent as an unfailing tonic to rebuild the system that is run down.
